“ I want to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Lamar Wilson. I am sorry Amy I could not make it to the funeral. Lamar was my uncle and I feel that he took very good care of my aunt Pill whom I loved very much. She was very kind to me when I was growing up. Lamar is in heaven and he is happy. Love always Laura##imported-begin##Laura H. Eidson##imported-end##

“ Sharing one of my favorite poems by Mary Frye.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.*

*I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.*

*When you wake in the morning hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft starlight at night.*

*Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die!##imported-begin##Judy##imported-

“ Lamar has always been a special person in our lives. He was more like a brother-in-law than an uncle since he and Pill were close to our age. He took such good care of our Aunt Pill. We will miss him so much.

Amy and Aunt Pill, all our family extends their deepest sympathy and love. Love, Gwen, Walt and Family##imported-begin##Walt & Gwen Duran##imported-end##
