“ Mike was a good friend of my wife and he would go out of the way to be of help if you had a problem. We had a situation last year when my car was in the shop and my wife needed transportation to her doctors appointment. Mike called and told her he would pick her up and take her to her appointment and then took me to pick up my car.

He truly enjoyed lending a helping hand.

Rest in peace Mike.

“ Mark I'm so sad for you and your family at this time. Mike's death was such a surprise. He was a good friend and will be missed. We met when we worked together all those years ago at the same Bank. Mike kept us all in laughs in the mist of transition from two banks into a new one. He moved to Los Angeles and I married and moved to Florida. Later we both returned Mike because of Ruth and my husband and I as we missed Atlanta. Through it all we stayed in touch and although we didn't see each other as much due to my illness and his work we did keep in touch via phone and e-mail. He would cheer me up and I hope I did the same for him. I will miss hearing him laugh and his kindness and friendship.
God bless you Mark and the Roberts' family

“ Sorry to hear this. Mike was a fraternity brother and friend, although we had not talked in a few years. Always willing to lend a hand and had a great sense of humor. He will be missed.

“ Mike and I were classmates and friends (as well as family) First Grade thru Fifth at Amy L. Dodd Elementary in Alpharetta. Unfortunately we lost touch after my family moved away to Colorado - but had recently in the last 8-10 years reconnected as adults.

I loved Mike's cheerful and soft demeanor and concern for others. He was sensitive to those who were hurting and in need - and he was FUN! Loved to laugh - and had the greatest laugh.

We often talked of spiritual things, and I believe that he had a personal relationship with Christ. Since I know the Lord is close to the brokenhearted and cares about those of us who are now experiencing a huge gap in our hearts, I trust that the roaring grief that is overwhelming, with time will become a small rumble - as we know that no one can fill Mike's place. He is going to be missed beyond words.

Blessing and much love to all the family and friends who are struggling, like me, with the whys. I know all things will work for good in our lives because God is love...and I am grateful Mike is experiencing that love right now beyond our wildest imaginations.

I love you, Cousin. You are now at peace.

“ He wasn't my family although he treated me like I was. As always he was kind, helpful and thoughtful. He has a special place in my heart, and I miss him so much. My one consolation is he's with his mother Ruth, and they can hug each other again. God Bless you Mikey , Piester misses you and sends kisses.

“ Mike was my first cousin as well as a great friend. He was from Alpharetta and I grew up in Roswell..which is about 6 miles south of where Mike lived. I suffered a stroke in 2016 and my cousin Mike showed compassion and checked on my progress after I returned home, my life completely changed and thoroughly depressed about my inability to walk without assistance. Mike would call me and ask if I needed anything on several occasions. We had become close in the last few years and he was really more like a brother to me than a cousin. I will miss him deeply and send my sincere condolences to Mark and the rest of the family.
