

Mrs. Raffaella Grace Cavalli

March 17, 1925 - September 19, 2022

Raffaella Grace Cavalli, daughter of the late Antonio Vanacore and Serafina Cibelli Vanacore passed away on September 19, 2022. She was born on March 17, 1925, in the Bronx, New York. Mrs. Cavalli, better known as Grace was educated in the New York City Public Schools.

On February 9, 1947 she married the love of her life, Mario Cavalli who predeceased her in 1985. Mario and Grace raised their two sons, Agostino and Mario in their Bronx home and then eventually moved to Mount Vernon, NY. In recent years she was a resident of Cottonwood Estates, Alpharetta, Georgia.

As a resident in Mount Vernon, Grace was a member of Sts. Peter and Paul Church, the Mount Vernon Senior Citizens, and served as a school volunteer at the Columbus Elementary School.

Her passion was baking and cooking. She could whip up a batch of delicious biscotti in no time. If anyone was having a party, you could be sure that she would show up with her famous eggplant parmigiana.

To cherish her memory Grace leaves behind her children, Agostino (Carol) and Mario (Jeanne); grandchildren, Tanya (Rouven) Magnus, Jeannine (Jamil) Salman, Christina (Joshua) Smith, Stephanie (Michael) Trchala, and Kimberly (Joshua) Hobbs; great grandchildren, Koen, Carina, Nicolas Magnus, Alexander and Nicholas Salman, Matthew and Zachery Smith, Tyler and Ethan Hobbs, Michael and Katherine Trchala..

A mass of the Christian Burial will be held on October 3, 2022 at St. Peter Chanel Catholic Church, Roswell, Georgia. Interment will take place in the family plot at the Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Hawthorne, New York.
