“ You have my love and support at this time. The service yesterday was beautiful. There must have been at least 1,000 people there for Reagan. What a beautiful boy and we know he is with the Lord. You are forever in our prayers. A sister in Christ, Kay Harrison, and Morgan and Clara Godfrey.##imported-begin##Kay Harrison##imported-end##

“ Dear Beene family. I don't know you personally, but my son Steven is a classmate of Reagan's and said he was a great kid that seemed to be loved by everyone and had lots of friends. Words cannot describe how sorry we are for your tragic loss and pray that somehow the Lord helps you find peace to lift your spirits. I know he is looking down on you wishing he could take away your pain and have another day to let you know he loves you and is very sorry. I hope you and your family find comfort knowing he is at peace resting with the Father Almighty. Our prayers are with your family and all of his friends. RIP Reagan. Your good spirit will never be forgotten.

“ You do not know me, but i just had to write after reading about the passing of Reagan. I have a 15 year old son and cannot imagine the sorrow you are feeling right now.
I felt compelled to express my sadness to you, for you.
I am so sorry for your loss and can only hope that God will be with you during this time of sorrow and grief for your family.##imported-begin##dianna##imported-end##

“ Reagan was the happiest Freshman ever! I met him at a concert with friends and did a little fishing with him. He really enjoyed life to the fullest! I'm so sorry for your loss and he will never be forgotten. I know that he wishes he could tell you sorry. He was just that kind of kid! My prayers are with you.

“ Reagan Beene- so precious, so sweet, so loved and so missed. Reagan, though your time here was far too short, I am learning just how far and wide that smile shined! You touched so many lives that can never be the same without you, but they can and should always be better for having shared some time here with you. I'll love you forever sweet boy and will do my best to lift up your family in any way that I can. Rest in peace. Nanny Martha##imported-begin##Martha Antoun##imported-end##
