“ Rebekah Howerton ... there are SO MANY things I could say about this amazing human being- none of them could possibly capture a portion of the Badass woman she was!

From the moment I ran across an article written by her several years ago, I knew we were kindred spirits. Only after getting to meet her in person did I really get to see what an incredible advocate she was.

The breast cancer community, and the world in general, is darker without her in it.

Much love Rebekah! 💙
