“ Sue & Randy,
I haven't seen you in quite some time but I will always remember our families getting together playing cards and listening to Country Gold Saturday Night. I recall our kids playing together and no matter what happened Brandi and Christina would always blame Reece. I will always cherish the times I spent we spent together. My heart breaks for you. May God comfort your family and reassure you that this is not the end and you will see him again in heaven. "It's not a grave, it's just a place to spend the night"

“*Reece,
I will always cherish the memory of the cherub faced little toddler you were when you first came into my heart. I was so honored when I was asked to be you, Christina and Harley’s godmother. I felt much pride watching you achieve your dreams and grow into the man you are; none more so than when you came to work with us at Alpharetta Police. Your time with us was way to short, but I thank God for letting me be a part of your life.

“ I wanted to share a story I just remembered about Reece. Right after the shooting Reece was involved in, Terrell and I attended a get together at Reece and Katie's house in Canton along with a group of others. We were concerned about how Reece might be handling the situation. We asked him about it and he told us about how he was escorted out in black vehicles to avoid the media and he wanted to roll the window down and shout out, "Its just like Halo!!" He always found a way to laugh and make other's laugh in any situation.##imported-begin##Eden Livori##imported-end##
