

Richard Edward Conte

June 12, 1936 - July 21, 2013

RICHARD EDWARD CONTE of Alpharetta, GA, and Bonita Springs, FL, died in his home surrounded by family on Sunday, July 21, after a courageous battle with cancer. Dick Conte was born on June 12, 1936, in St. Albans, VT, to Felix and Giselle Conte, the second of five sons. He grew up in Taunton, MA. He attended University of Massachusetts, Amherst, where he received a BA in business. Dick earned his way through college with scholarships and hard work. He was a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity, Adelpia honor society, and the Statesmen chorale group, among other activities. In 1960, he married his high school sweetheart, Roberta Sacco. Together they created a loving family and a beautiful life, and they developed an ever growing community of friends. For fifty-three years, they charmed friends and family alike and became known affectionately as "The Dick and Bobbie Show." Dick served in the U.S. Army at Ft. Bliss, Texas, as First Lt. A self-made man, Dick began his career with Ford Motor Company where he was a zone manager for the S.E. district. He later joined the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and retired in 1997 as Mid-Atlantic district manager. Dick enjoyed an active retirement as an avid golf and tennis player and a voracious reader. A skillful golfer, Dick shot a hole-in-one and regularly shot his age when he was in his early seventies. He was a charter member of Country Club of the South and most recently a member of Spring Run Golf Club in Bonita Springs, FL, and of the Alpharetta Athletic Club. Dick founded an annual tournament for the AAC, which was renamed the Dick Conte Senior Men's Member/Guest Tournament in his honor. He also enjoyed dancing, traveling, entertaining, parties, sports, good music, and most especially his dear family and multitude of cherished friends. Dick delighted in life and in everyone he met, and he was a joy to be with. He was known for his sharp wit and fun sense of humor. The hundreds of cards and messages that Dick has received since the onset of his illness are a testament to his charismatic and engaging personality. He is survived by his devoted wife, Bobbie; brothers Leo, Maurice, and Stephen; children Rick Conte, Richelle Conte, Robin Isaf and son-in-law Lou Isaf; and grandchildren Ben Conte, and Robby, Katie, Nick, and Michael Isaf, and several nieces and nephews. Visitations will take place as follows: on Monday, July 22, from 5-8 p.m.; and on Tuesday, July 23, from 3-7 p.m. at Northside Chapel Funeral Home, 12050 Crabapple Rd., Roswell, GA 30075, 770-645-1414. “ Dear Bobbi,

We had such high hopes that Dick would beat this cancer as he beat his friends on the golf course at Spring Run. We are saddened and are keeping you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Mrs. Conte,

I was so sorry to hear of Mr. Conte's passing. He was such an amazing man. I will always remember his dancing and in every way being the "life of the party". You and Mr. Conte were a huge part of my childhood. You mean so much to me and the rest of the Gilberts. You are in our prayers.##imported-begin##Krissy Gilbert Hilton##imported-end##

“ Dear Bobbie and family,
I am truly saddened but also relieved that Dick is no longer suffering these earthly bonds. Dick was one of my first friend's when the Martinez's moved to Atlanta from NYC in 1978. Our family's bonded as next door neighbors and lifelong friends shortly after our meeting. Our shared lives and times at each others homes, vacations together, beach house and golf I will always treasure. Bobbie and family my prayers are with you and Dick during this transition in life.
Sincerely,
