“ *Dear Hearin family,
I was stunned to see this news finally in Aug.2009. David and Dick were so much a part of Fletcher, sister Gail and my growing up years in Sandy Springs, Ga. My sincere condolences to you, David, for the wonderful gifts you boys brought to our childhood. Warmest regards and hugs to your family. Please get in touch.

“ We are very sorry for your loss.

Dick was always a pleasure to be around. I only saw him in social situations related to real estate gatherings, but certainly was fond of him. He was a real gentleman.

I know that the family and close friends will miss him greatly. Someone this nice leaves a big hole in our lives when they move on. Fill it with memories to the extent possible and ask God to help you face the hurt of your loss, but thank Him for the experiences with Dick and for the time you had his company. Few are as fortunate.

Take the values and joys he represents and incorporate them in your own future lives as a memorial.

“ Dick Hearin was a uniquely gifted man. Beside his penetrating and thorough ability to analyze, present and negotiate real estate deals, his friendly, jovial manner quickly put everyone at ease. I had the good fortune to work with him on three listings and always appreciated his strong work ethic, fairness, caring and professionalism.

He will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Robert L. Levine##imported-end##
