Richard Edmund Hellmann, age 93, of Milton passed away on December 30, 2020. He was born and raised in St. Louis, MO. He attended grade school and served as an altar boy at Our Lady of Perpetual Health, and graduated from Beaumont High School in St. Louis. He also served as an altar boy for the Holy Spirit Adoration Sisters, "The Pink Sisters," and had huge respect for their work and often talked about their beautiful Convent. After high school, he received a degree in business from Milliken University in Decatur, Illinois and was a member of the Tau Kappa Epsilon (TKE) fraternity. Richard served in the U.S. Army during WWII and served in Okinawa. He worked in the optical industry in various capacities during his career, where he was loved and respected by many.

He married the love of his life, Barbara, and they devoted their life to lovingly raising their five children. He loved practical jokes and would go to great lengths to carry them out. He was known for his overuse of funny quotes... 'I didn't feel a thing', which started a tradition that is now carried on by his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. He was fondly known to the grandkids as Poppy. All things cooking were his passion. He leaves behind his cookbook, cookware and barbeque collections as treasured reminders for the family. He was also a life-long Cardinals baseball fan.
