“ Rick and I were very good friends for many-many years. Rick was store manager and I a 21 year old assistant manager for Bally Of Switzerland, a very high-end men's retail store in Northbrook, Illinois. Rick and I ran the store together. for many years Rick's home was Mount Clemens, Michigan, where I eventually moved entering my career in radio and television. Through our efforts, Rick was recognised by the company and promoted to wholsale rep for Bally. I was promoted to Michigan Avenue, later transferred to Rodeo Drive in Beverly Hills, California. We became roommates in Mt. Clemens, Rick's original home. Rick taught me a lot about life. He was very well organized, learning that in the Navy. Rick taught me a lot about honesty and integrity as a human being. Rick was a very sharp dresser always crisp starched shirts and perfectly knotted ties. I am totally shocked no one notified me of Rick's passing. I am heartbroken to hear this news! Many knew Rick and I were like brothers for 48 years. I only discovered Rick's passing by doing a Google search of his name and that he died last October 2023. Rest in peace my friend! Rest in peace!
