“ Barb and Family- so sad to hear of Dick's passing. he was a long time friend at Ebasco and GE. Dick was one of the smartest people you could ever know; and not just about project controls and scheduling; about being a beloved husband, family man, travels, finances, health, current events, and especially life in general. A truly happy, sincere and trusted individual. always a positive attitude....even at golf. Dick RIP....hit 'em long and straight in Heaven I will miss our talks dearly. My prayers to the family. With sympathy- Greg Rog

“ Dick and I shared the same affliction....Golf. We spent a bit of time on the fringe looking for balls and chatting. He was a happy man that had done many of the things he wanted to do in life. Dick always had a smile and a warm sense of humor, come what may. He will be sorely missed. My sympathies to the family.

“ I've known Dick, Barb and his family for more than 35 yrs, and he was one of my closest friends. Dick was a smart, well-traveled, hardworking, straight shooting, adventurous family man. I always enjoyed playing golf with Dick, chatting with him about a wide variety of subjects and bouncing ideas, as well as opinions, off him. We've had some great times together, and I will sorely miss his friendship and positive attitude.

Barb, you, Michael, Michelle, Matt and your families have my and Teresa's deepest sympathy. - John Strelitz

“ I knew Dick from our golf league. Dick may not have been the best golfer, but he was one of the best people you would ever want to meet.
