“ Dick and I were the best of friends. It was through Dick that I was able to retrain for my Private Pilot's Licence. We also spent many hours studying the Bible together and studying biblical Hebrew. Dick was conscientious to do only that which pleased God and wanted to delve deeply into the Scriptures. We shared meals and shared travelling and holidaying too. Dick knew where his eternal destination lay and he is now enjoying his reward in Jesus. I will miss him and it feels unreal to have lost my friend, but he is doing fine where he is. It is our loss but Dick's gain.

“ I remember the first time I met Richard. It was on a wednesday evening at Salt Life Church. What an intense, humble, sweet man of God. One could "feel" the love of God on Richard. He truly was a honest and gentle person who loved his wife, his wife and his God. I really will miss you as well as many others.
