“ Bob has always been a treasured member of our small neighborhood. We all particularly enjoyed his sense of humor. When there was some tension in the neighborhood between a few neighbors and an anonymous letter. Bob brought everyone back to a better perspective with a gentle letter that made everyone laugh. We kept that letter in our desk. for years now, because it was funny and helped us all remember what being a good neighbor us all about. Our children grew up together. Celebrated Halloween, Christmas (remember carolling?) and birthdays (Patrick & Matt's 4th birthday-Bob played DJ and Sara was the fortune teller!) together. We never drove past Bob in the yard without getting a big smile and a wave. In recent years we have swapped stories of our grandchildren. All of the Jolles will miss Bob- Jon. Christy. Mark, Patrick and Adrienne.
