

Mr. Robert (Bob) Danuser

September 23, 1948 - January 30, 2024

Robert (Bob) Danuser, 75, of Roswell, GA passed away on January 30, 2024. He was born on September 23, 1948, in Melrose Park, Illinois. Bob was a beloved husband to Sue, a loving father to Christian, a caring brother to Steve, Kathee, and Cyndi.

Bob was a special soul who would make you feel you were suddenly his best friend. He had a mischievous smile that was infectious - he could easily make you laugh uproariously. Everyone wanted to be around him...everyone's best friend. He was an entrepreneur who succeeded with multiple businesses: Gas stations, Importing Cars, Environmental consulting, etc. However, his lifelong passion was owning, building and racing vintage cars. He also loved clay shooting and cherished the friends that came along with it. Eventually, Bob was introduced to boxing to help manage his Parkinson's Disease and looked forward to the weekly classes.

A visitation will be held on Saturday, February 3, 2024 from 10AM to 12PM to honor Bob's life at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors and Crematory, located at 12050 Crabapple Rd, Roswell, GA 30075.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to the Center for Movement Challenges (centerformovementchallenges.org) in memory of Bob Danuser.

Bob Danuser will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him. May his soul rest in eternal peace.

“ My heart is heavy and saddened at the loss of our wonderful friend. Bob always greeted you with a smile and a firm handshake. He was exceptionally kind, jovial, and quick-witted with a contagious laugh. Bob, my friend, you will be missed by all. Heaven has gained an extraordinary angel. My thoughts and prayers are with Sue, Christopher and the family.

Oh my. I have been trying to reach Bob for some time. He and I were great friends in Lake Geneva Wisconsin from 1973 through 1980. We both road raced cars in the early 70's. He moved to Atlanta are in 1980 I moved to Colorado in 1981 but we kept in touch. He visited me here in 1983 and I visited with him in 1984. Met his wife and son Sue and Chris and stayed at their place. In Wisconsin I helped Bob restore a Pantera and other car projects. He introduced me to some great jazz music by people such as Angela Bofil. Just a wonderful guy. Not sure if you remember me Sue or Chris but I will never forget Bob. Brings tears to me tonight. God bless you both. You were blessed by knowing a wonderful man.

I am so sad to have lost my Bobalouie. Such a wonderful person and husband to Sue. He was Steve's very best friend and in turn, the other half of my very best so we loved him dearly. Our wonderful weekends in Destin and Highlands will never be the same. Not to mention all the good times here at home. While looking like he just stepped out of Gentlemen's Quarterly he could be the goofiest person around. So many great memories with him. I'll never forget how he came in and took over with Christian as a toddler. He couldn't have been better or closer father to him if he'd birthed him himself. He made him a person to be very proud of. Throughout his journey with Parkinson's I never once heard him complain; he took it with such grace and strength. We were so lucky to have Bob in our lives. I know we'll be with him drinking Mararitas again. Tell Bo we love him Bob. We miss u so much.
