“ Bob is a dear, dear friend of ours. He became a close friend of my mother, Rita Nielsen, when they met at St. Pius Church in Conyers, somewhere around 2004. In 2006, Rita was diagnosed with Ovarian Cancer; Bob was by her side throughout the next four years until she passed in 2010. I truly believe she would not have lived that long without Bob; he was her rock. We cannot adequately express how much Bob helped her through this time, as well as helping us-- he was God's angel sent to us and we will forever love him.

I'm so sorry he has passed, but please realize what a powerful impact he had on us, and I know on so many others. He was so selfless and loving; you don't find many people with those qualities anymore. You must be so proud.

“ I first met Bob and Alice at St. Pius X church in Conyers, GA. They were a lovely couple. When I moved to Alpharetta, I started going to St. Thomas Aquinas church. One day I walked into church and saw Bob standing there. I said "what are you doing here?" and he said "what are you doing here?" and we both laughed. Since then, we got together and had lunch or dinner occasionally. Bob became a very good friend and I enjoyed our talks and time together. I pray for God's peace for his family.

Rest in Peace Bob!
