Robert Howell 'Bob' McDonald, age 76, went to be with his Lord on Friday, August 12, 2016 at the Tranquility of the Mountain Hospice Facility in Marietta, Georgia.

Bob was born in Commerce, Georgia to Ben and Pearl McDonald and was the oldest of their three children. He was a longtime member of Northbrook United Methodist Church in Roswell.

He is survived by his wife Martha, "he was married to the same white woman for 47 ½ blissful years"; his son Rob (Katie); son John (Sherry); grandchildren John, Jesse, Joe, Elizabeth and Tripp; brother John McDonald and wife Barbara of Honey Brook, PA; and beloved dog Sophie who brought him great joy.

A service in celebration of his life will be held Tuesday, August 16 at 11:00 am at Northbrook United Methodist Church. The family will receive visitors at Northside Chapel in Roswell on Monday, August 15 from 4:00-6:00pm. “ I always loved when Bob would sound off the Georgia fight song after every touchdown on Saturdays in the Fall. A great neighbor indeed. I especially loved when he would stop over and before departing say "I'm glad you had time to see me". Still makes me laugh.
