“ Jeff-Nicki-Bonnie It's difficult to put into words my thoughts at this time. I'm thankful to have known Bob. We started together at Nationwide about 1975, and had some great times together. We'll miss his being there for us. We know that he has joined a greater family, I'm sure he and Alma and Amy are talking about ole times in Roswell. God's grace is sufficient to sustain you during your time of grief. God's blessing on all of you.##imported-begin##Curt Moore##imported-end##

“ Bob was a true and dear friend to us. He believed in us and our music more than anyone else that we have ever known. Bob's passion for life was captured in the pictures that he took. If Bob was there so was his camera. Bob had a special knack for freezing the most intimate, breathtaking moments in time and the memory of Bob Hollifield will forever be frozen in our minds just as his pictures that he took. We will always remember Bob's saying "Hey Man, Watchyou talkin' about". Bonnie, we love you and our thoughts and prayers are with you. Bob, we will miss you...always##imported-begin##Honi and Jeff Deaton##imported-end##

“ I first met Bob 17 years ago when I started a new Nationwide Agency. He was someone that I admired and trusted - his advice was gold. I always considered Bob a role model - a good man and respected business owner. His family should know that his reach was wide, influencing many in our business. Bob will be missed, we truly lost a great one. My prayers are with his family as they cope with this loss. My God bless you.
