“ "Semper Fi" my friend, the definition of your life summed up in two very poignant words. You always were so much more than a customer to me. There is so much to be learned from the life you lived, the love you gave, the knowledge you shared, the kindness you showed. I will remember forever the last time I saw you and your incredible wife together, a chance running into each other as I was purchasing a microwave and she was picking you up from work. Even then you smiled and both took the time to speak to me and ask how I had been. I am so glad I took that opportunity to hug your neck because I never imagined it would be the last one I got. I will miss you dearly and table 61 will never truly belong to anyone else.##imported-begin##Mike and Jennifer Holbrook##imported-end##
