“ Today would have been my sisters birthday if she were still here with ua and two months of not having her in my life. What a sad, sad way to lose a loved one much less a sister that was like a twin but we were so much alike and so different in so many ways as well. She will truly be missed and I feel like a part of me is gone too as with the rest of my family. Rest in peace Ronda and hope to see you one day in Heaven with our brother Tracy.....

Love lis sis,

“ Ronda and I went to Roswell High School together in 8th grade. She was one of my closest friends and then we lost touch when she moved. I have wonderful memories of laughing with her, writing notes in Health class, and talking instead of working. I live in Florida but would have attended the Funeral if I had been in Ga. I am very sorry that she died. I pray for peace for her family. Amy Armistead.##imported-begin##Amy Armistead##imported-end##

Thought of Ronda today, and praying for peace and comfort for her son and family. Remember her loving spirit and her laugh. Stay strong. Will light a candle for her on her bday. 🕯️🌸
