July 15, 1930 - October 6, 2011

Rosalia Stampler Hart

Rosalia S. Hart

After 5 years of continuous struggle, Rose passed away quietly on October 6, 2011, from complications of Alzheimer's disease at her home in Freedom Pointe in Roswell, Georgia. Rose was born and raised in Southwest Pennsylvania and graduated from South Huntington High School in 1948. Although she held several jobs in her life to support the education of her children, she was first and foremost a loving wife and mother to her family. She was born July 15, 1930 to Frank and Mary Stampler of Yukon, Pennsylvania and was the third of child five children, Frank, Mildred, Willard and Beatrice. Frank and Mildred survive Rose; Willard and Beatrice previously passed. She married George E. Hart on Valentine's Day, February 14, 1949 and had 4 children, Larry, George A., Carol and Tim over the next 11 years. Her husband, all four children, 12 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren, survives Rose. George E. Hart, Larry, George A. and Tim all live in the Atlanta, Georgia area and Carol Hart Barry lives in Medford, New Jersey. Most of Rose's life was spent in Southwest Pennsylvania with one 10-year interval in Hagerstown, Maryland. George and Rose retired to Keowee Key in Salem,

South Carolina in 1992 where they remained until their final move in 2007 to Freedom Pointe, in Roswell, Georgia, an assisted living facility, where George will continue to reside. Rose will be remembered for her wonderful sense of humor, the great batches of many Christmas cookies she baked every year and the love and devotion to her family. Friends and family are invited to her memorial at the Seneca Presbyterian Church in Seneca, South Carolina on October 29, 2011 at 1:30 p.m. where her cremated remains will be interred. The family requests that all donations, in lieu of flowers, be sent to The Compassionate Hospice Foundation, 1435 Haw Creek Circle, Suite 402, Cumming, GA 30041. Arrangements by Northside Chapel Funeral Directors in Roswell. (770) 645-1414. www.northsidechapel.com
