

Mrs. Ruth Chambers Jameson

February 28, 1930 - November 21, 2016

Ruth Chambers Jameson (86) went peacefully to be with the Lord November 21, 2016. Ruth will be remembered for her love of God, kind heart, and love and devotion to her family. She was a devoted pastor's wife, a caring Mother and a cherished Nana. Our beautiful, caring Mother is survived by her daughters; Debbie and Danny Tippens, Connie and Larry Woltz and son, Rick and Cindy Jameson; grandchildren, Wes Blackwood (Lisa) of Macon, Ga, Steven Blackwood (Sara) of Milwaukee, WI, Blake Woltz (Michelle) of Canton GA, Erica Woltz Rivers (Jonathan) of Canton, GA and Spencer Jameson (Jordan) of Nashville, TN.; great-grandchildren Carly (12) and Sadie (8) Blackwood, William and Elizabeth Blackwood (1½), Anniston (5) and Tyson (3) Rivers, Everett (3 months) Jameson. She is happy in the arms of Jesus now and rejoicing that she is together again with her beloved husband, Carl. She has so much to tell him. In lieu of flowers please make donations to the Arthritis Foundation, 1355 Peachtree St. NE, Suite 600, Atlanta, GA. 30309 or at www.arthritis.org. A celebration of Ruth's life will take place 11AM Saturday, November 26 at Crabapple First Baptist Church, Milton, GA. Visitation will be Friday, November 25, 2PM-4PM and 6PM-8PM at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors, Roswell, www.northsidechapel.com.

“ Such a sweet lady. She shared a banana pudding recipe with me many, many years ago. It is the only recipe I use for banana pudding, delicious.

“ "A friend loves at all times... Proverbs 17:17a Sweet, precious memories over sixty plus years! My mind is flooded with so many. The blessings God has given our two families is immeasurable! As we parents watched, nurtured and loved all of our children, you - Debbie, Connie and Rick, have been the recipients of a very rich, powerful spiritual heritage from Ruth and Carl - as you are well aware, I'm sure. They were and are dearly loved as are you!

“ I have so many memories to cherish, sitting beside each other in Sunday School for more years than I can remember, the rides to church, the lunch dates, the rides through the cemetery so she could see her beloved Carl's grave, many, many visits and phone calls, the list goes on and on. Oh how I will miss my precious friend. My prayers are with all of you and we love each one of you. If we can ever be of any help to you, please call on us. God bless and much love.
