“ Remembering Ruth brings a smile to my face. We spent many hours over the past few years taking Mary Kent and her to lunch at Traditions resturant and then on to Ellijay to the Apple place for fried pies and coffee.

Her sweetness and softness and gentleness mixed with Mary's humor made for some unforgettable memories.

May those memories comfort those she left behind.

“ What a great person Ruth was. Her gentle and soft spoken manner reflected the way she lived her entire life. My first job in Atlanta in 1959 was on Peachtree Street and Ruth worked at Piedmont Hospital just down the street from where I worked. We started a car pool and she rode to work with me for many years. That was before Ga. 400 and so we were in the car for over an hour each day. We had some great times and lots of laughs and after she retired and I started to work for the city of Alpharetta, I would see her occassionally and she would always hug me and tell me how much she enjoyed those days. I know that she was a great mom, grandmother and great-grandmother. You should all be very proud and just live on all the fond memories.
