“ Kate,

My son works at McKesson and knew Ryan. Their cubicles were near each other. My son liked Ryan and thought a great deal of him. I am so very sorry that you and his family are having to deal with such a terrible loss. You have been in my thoughts and prayers all week. I pray God will give you comfort and strength to move to the other side of grief.

Sincerely,

Cathy Broom

“ I am so very sorry. I work at McKesson and even though I did not know Ryan personally, I had seen him in the hallway and work closely with his team. I've heard only amazing things about him and you've been in my thoughts all week. It's just so difficult. Please take care of yourself through all of this. I can't even pretend to imagine how hard this must be. Everyone at work has been impacted and are grieving together. You are in my thoughts and prayers.###imported-begin##Denise Carter###imported-end##

“ I will always remember Ryan as a bright light in the workplace. Always positive and giving suggestions on how to make things better; a joy to work with. He was always easy to approach and kind to others.

I've not had the pleasure of meeting you Kate but I know you just have to be a jewel since someone so kind chose you to love and to be his wife. You and Charlotte have been so strongly on my mind and in my prayers. Although you may feel numb at this time, I pray that God will allow you to remember forgotten tender moments and conversations that will renew and warm your heart, bring a smile to your lips and just maybe bring laughter so that you can share those times with Charlotte as she comes of age. I'm so sorry that your heart hurts.##imported-begin##Tammy Hamilton##imported-end##

“ Kate

My prayers and deepest sympathies are with you and Charlotte Grace. I will never understand God's plan but I just accept that He does indeed have one – though I doubt that brings you much comfort now. Just know that my heart and condolences are with you and your family. We all love you and are here if you ever need us to be.##imported-begin##Antonio Naylor##imported-end##
