“ My condolences to all in the loss of your beloved sister. You three remain as my first warm remembrances of joining the Kimball Bridge SJUMC family. She will be missed at her post by all but by you most of all. May God keep each of you in His care until you all meet again.##imported-begin##Shevawn ##imported-end##

“ *Dear Ms. Carter & Chambers my sincerest condolence's to you and your family.
Words alone cannot express my sorrow and regret. I haven't been available to chat and enjoy Sally's salad, cake and beautiful flowers (which used to tickle me cause she was allergic to them)or chase Sadie from sniffing me lately as wish I had.We had been each others Christmas buddies for 24 years, this past Christmas I hadn't had a chance to see her, I believe I may have subconsciously avoided seeing her to remember her as she was, a loving, genuine caring a straight forward down to earth Angel that has now spread her wings and found her place at the pearly gates. Know that there are many that feel a void to lose someone that really cares, Rest in Peace my loving Friend we shall see each other again.....##imported-begin##Patrice Harrison##imported-end##*

“ *Lois and Chestene my prayers are with you as you prepare a great going home service for your little sister, Sallie. My family and I have been so blessed to have attended St. James New Year's Eve Service on December 31, 1977. We were greeted at the door by Lois and Sallie with strong hugs and then approached by Chestene with the same strong hugs. Because of your hugs, we found life long friends and we want you to know that we love you and that Sallie is resting, no longer in pain and will be greeted in Heaven by her parents and others. So smile and keeping on giving hugs to those you see, because those hugs mean so much. I will see you both soon and give you big hugs. Pat. James. “ If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. John 12:26.

Sallie, Servant of God, thank you for welcoming me to St. James UMC and being the example Usher...teaching me in the way that I should go and exemplifying what it means to be an Usher. You will be sorely missed but I know you are in a better place.###imported-begin##Ruth Alvarez-Moon###imported-end##
