

Mrs. Sally M. Clark

September 25, 1924 - October 17, 2022

On October 17, 2022, we lost Sally Moreau Clark, our mom, sister, grandmother, great grandmother, great great grandmother, and friend. She was 98 and one of the strongest women we have ever known. She was born in Ashland, Maine in 1924 to Albert and Annie Moreau. At 14 she moved to Hartford, Connecticut. In 1946 she married Wallace Clark and started her family. She taught us all many lessons in life and to many she was the epitome of beauty and grace. She worked tirelessly her entire life. She was a homemaker, mentor, card shark, owner of a small business with her beloved husband, Wallace Clark, The Glastonbury Sport Center. She fought hard to stay with us but her desire to be with Our Lord and her beloved Wally, who has been waiting for this reunion for 20 years, won in the end. We love her with all our hearts and know she is watching over us and we look forward to the day that we will all be reunited again.

Sally Moreau Clark is preceded in death by her husband Wallace Clark, her parents and her five brothers. She is survived by her sister Sylvia Beaulier, her children Sheila Nadeau and her husband Don, Karon Wright and her husband Bob, Wally Clark and his wife Miriam.

By her grandchildren Sherri Nadeau, Paul Nadeau and his wife April, David Worthington and his wife Jennifer, Staci Nadeau Clenney, Jill Sundwall and her husband Kris, Martene Nadeau, Jennifer Bullock and her husband Mark,

By her great grandchildren: Tyler Nadeau, Bailey Quinn, Madison Sundwall, Janie Bullock Robyck and her husband Sheldon, Chandler Clenney, Caleb Quinn, Nash Bullock, Grier Quinn, Mckenna Sundwall, John Cyr Clenney, Macey Sundwall, Gracie Bullock, Cheyenne Clenney, Annie Bullock, Cayden Nadeau, Brittany Hill, Kara Sullivan, and Riley Sullivan.

By her great great grandchildren: Legend Nadeau, Sayer Nadeau, Archer Clark, Hollin Halperin, Kennedy Williams, Cooper Robyck, Lena Halperin and Reign Nadeau.

She is also survived by many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Sally Clark was a parishioner of Saint Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church since 2002 and an active member of Forever Friends.
