“ When we moved here ten years ago, Sally was the first person that I met. I will never forget how she took me under her wing to show me everything about Roswell. What a great way to be introduced to a city. I will always remember her kindness to our family. She will be missed. Our prayers are with you.

“ To all loved ones of Sally...I first met Sally while working at First Realty in the late 90's. I then worked with her over the years @ Capital Lending and looked to her as a both a friend and a mentor. She was always kind with her time and I felt so welcome while we enjoyed discussions about what her children were doing and what her tennis team had accomplished. She was also genuinely interested in how my family and children were doing and always required me to bring pictures of the little ones :) I am saddened for your loss.##imported-begin##Casey Daniel##imported-end##
