

Samantha B. Holladay

September 18, 1997 - August 27, 2019

Our dear and beloved Samantha Blair Holladay passed away suddenly at her home on Tuesday, August 27th, 2019. She has gone to be with the Lord Jesus Christ at the young age of 21 years old, born on September 18, 1997, in Roswell, GA. She is survived in life by her mother, Alison Brumfield (Wes); father, Zachary Holladay; sister, Lindsey Holladay; brother, Graham Holladay; stepbrother, Nathan Brumfield; stepsister, Claire Brumfield; maternal grandmother, Charlotte Lentz and uncle, Alan Lentz (Susan).

Samantha wore her heart on her sleeve and when she loved, she loved with her whole heart. She was outgoing and never met a stranger. Her passions in life were her many friends, namely her besties Natascha Perez and Emely Cabrales, boyfriend Trevor Bocian, dear friend LuAnn Moore, tennis, shopping, coffee at Starbucks or Dunkin Donuts, her job at Publix, camping, drawing, graduating college, adventure, travel, music, her “puppy” Muffin and her pursuit of the Lord Jesus Christ. She was a free spirit, full of smiles, laughter, a true peacemaker, and loved a challenge. She graduated from Milton High School in 2016 and was a current student at Kennesaw State University. The void will never be filled.

Her reach has been astounding as the family continues to receive notes of love and support from so many people she had touched throughout her short life.

Her Celebration of Life will be held at Northbrook United Methodist Church, 11225 Crabapple Rd., Roswell, GA 30075, Sunday, September 1, 2019, and 2:00 in the afternoon. A reception will follow in the church Fellowship Hall immediately following the service. All are welcome to attend.
