“ Sandra was one amazing southern gal! We had many laughs - mostly about the differences between English and American accents! When I hit a low and had no where to go she let me stay in her home for 2 weeks and ever since then I was just welcomed into her family. I was always invited for Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas and I just cherish those precious moments with her. I loved having a chat, getting her advice and hanging out with her. I remember doing my first 5k with her and seeing her and Dennis collect medals for winning their age category! Awesome! More than anything I'm so happy that beautiful Sandra is in the loving arms of her saviour Jesus. She knew and loved the Lord and has been such a good example of living out her faith in Him right to the very end. You are a true inspiration and I love you Sandra. So glad we got chance to talk on FaceTime before you left us. We are all looking forward to seeing you again at some point up there so until then enjoy every second - I know you will be doing. My love and thoughts to Dennis, Shanda, Kevin, Alan, Scott and families. Your friend, Sapphira xoxo

“ Sandra and I shared a lifetime of friendship. So blessed to have had her in my life. So many memories that I will carry in my heart as long as I live. Her faith and her spirit inspired me as she struggled. Always a positive outlook and giving praise to God for each day she lived. She always brought joy to others, even in the face of her suffering. Love and prayers to the special family that she leaves behind.

“ We were so blessed to have had Sandra in our lives (and the rest of the Hunter family too). Sandra was our son's second mom or 14 years as his babysitter. She always had such a sweet spirit. We will miss her so much. Praying for the entire family during this difficult time.
