“ I'm so sorry to hear that Sandy has passed on, but I am glad to know that she is now free of pain. Whenever I think of Sandy, I remember her smile and her laughter. I can't remember ever seeing her without a smile on her face and full of life. I know that we all will miss that smile and energy. My thoughts, prayers, and love are with all of you and I pray that your memories will help you through this difficult time.##imported-begin##Yvonne Taves##imported-end##

“ I will never forget my cousin Sandy, how she loved and respected everyone and brought so much life and laughter to every occasion.

I will be praying the Rosary from home at 8:00pm Friday, along with the visitors in your chapel. I hope all who read this will join us in prayer at that time.

God bless the family and friends who cared for Sandy during her illness.##imported-begin##Claire & Dale Weber##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you, Chuck, and with all of your family. I was so sorry to hear of Sandra's death. Right now I picture Sandra with her parents and Megan. Sandra was blessed with a wonderful husband and family. I will miss her, but I know that she is happy and free from pain now. It is so nice to be able to see her visitation on the internet since I won't be able to be there in person. I will be praying for all of you.##imported-begin##Janet Baloun##imported-end##
