“ I have decades of memories from the day I met her back in 1975. She was expecting her first baby. There were holidays, get togethers birthdays, baseball games, weddings. Like I said decades of memories good ones, sad ones and lots of laughs along the way. Later on I married her brother in law Michael and the family started to get bigger. She made me my birthday cake when I turned “40”. I will miss her deeply but know that she is at peace and no longer in pain. May you Rest in Peace.
