From a very early age Sarah had an eye for design both in fashion and home décor. She began making draperies with a friend and together they developed it into a full time business. Sarah worked with multiple designers in the Albany, Georgia area gaining fame for her design instincts and quality of manufacturing. Sarah and her business partner made beautiful draperies, custom pillows and many fun holiday creations. Sarah was often called on to decorate homes and dining tables for special holiday events which often would appear in Southern Living magazine.

Sarah was greatly devoted and protective of her family, especially her children. Sarah was known to be kind to children that came from broken or unstable home environments. She also had a sympathetic ear for friends of her children. In this arena, Sarah had some very amazing insights. She was truly a unique person and will be missed by all of the lives she touched in her stay here on earth.

There will be a private family graveside service to inter her ashes at Chilcutt cemetery in Cleveland, Tennessee March 16, 2019 at 2:00pm.
