“ Many great memories with Scott growing up with the neighborhood kids. He was always the computer guy before computers were a common place. From the giant skateboard ramp in the driveway that we all built, to running away from Skamper. R.I.P. my friend.

“ Dave and Shirley Ann, we can't begin to imagine the loss of Scott. Our hearts break for you and his family. You will always cherish those wonderful years when our kids were growing up, blossoming into little humans and then intelligent adults. You were fortunate to have had Scott for 50 years to watch his creativity and enjoy seeing him become a family man.

God Bless you all.

Much love and prayers for you both. I met Scott at Holy Comforter and he made a big impression. He was the smartest person I had ever met and had a kindness that put anyone at ease. I lost touch after middle school but he and I share many many mutual friends. May he be in a more peaceful place and know that he will always be remembered fondly.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar, I am shocked and heavy hearted to hear this news. Despite my many faults growing up, your family always welcomed me with open arms. Scott was an inspiration to all of us younger students who loved science. He was always the smartest kid in the school. My own children have been doing science projects and I have told them about my friend who built the robotic arm in middle-school. They think that is the coolest! ((HUG)) I am so sorry.

“ *Dear Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar,
I am so sorry to learn of Scott's passing and want to express my deepest condolences. I have such fun and fond memories of Scott from high school and college. I am grateful that we grew up to be upstanding citizens 😊. He was a dear friend and even though we me and my family. Wishing you all love and strength. Susie Garfein*

“ So many things come to mind when I think about Scott. I recall the day you got cute little, energetic Scamper and the love you had for that dog. I remember the awe we all had for you when you designed and built a robotic arm for a Science fair in middle school! I even remember how envious I was when you hit your first homerun in tee ball at Winthrop We had some blessed years at Holy Comforter and Mountain Top. I love you and will miss you Brother, but will see you again someday. My love and prayers for Mr and Mrs Dunbar, Mark, Erin, and of course Jack and Elizah, and Christy.

“ Most of my memories of Scott were of the cute blonde, curly headed, very smart little boy in my Fourth Grade class at Holy Comforter. He lived right around the corner from us so he , Klay and Kimbril were always good friends. Mark was younger so he wasn't always in that “clan” until later years. Soooo many memories with the Dunbar family over many years. Although my heart breaks for them, we know he's just fine now and probably showed ST. Peter new ways to enter THE GATE by using high tech recognition. All the Stivers pray for comfort and peace for ALL the Dunbar family.

“ Although I had very few occasions to visit with Scott, I recall that he was always jovial and appeared to enjoy the company of family and friends. Most of what I know of Scott comes from stories shared by his parents and brother. There is no doubt that he was brilliant and he'd a mind for innovation. May all who mourn Scott's death take comfort in knowing that he is absent of pain and stress. May God grant Scott eternal rest. Mike McQuone 26Mar22

“ I always liked hearing stories about Scott and his gifts in science and technology. Dave and Shirley Ann told about how the Tallahassee Sheriff's deputies came to there house to arrest Dave for breaking into (I think) a government computer system. Dave said it was NOT him but maybe his 12 year old son Scott. True. Scott was just experimenting with his computer skills. Thus he escaped with a warning. Scott did win a major International Science Fair contest with a robotics entry. He also gave me some computer programming information which gave me enough knowledge to apply for an Oracle grant for my school. The school win the grant. That gave me and my school an exciting 2 years of higher level computing skills. I always will remember him for his advanced skills and his willingness to share that with me. Praying for Scott's eternal rest and the healing those who mourn his loss. With love, Cathy McQuone
