“ When I think of Sharon, the first thing that comes to mind is her presence... she was always there for her daughters and granddaughters - a constant support and part of their lives. She was frank and to the point, with a twinkle in her eye and a wry sense of humor. Last time I saw her was Kaitlyn's graduation ceremony, and she was so proud! Sharon meant so much to Kerri and Kaitlyn, my heart breaks for them, and for Chris and Nikki, whom must be devastated by the loss. I send love and prayers to the family during this sad time, my heart goes out to you all.

“ *May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
the rains fall soft upon your fields
and until we meet again,
may God hold you in the palm of His hand.*

“ I could go on for hours and hours with stories about my mom. Yes she was a no nonsense woman, told it like it was for sure....but she was also a person that would help anyone anytime if she could. She loved me and Nikki, no doubt about that. But she loved her granddaughters and would do ANYTHING for them. I will share a story that me and my sister Nikki were like REALLY???? she never did that for us. Kerrie's boyfriend at the time wanted her to come over for New Year's Eve. I had to work and told Kerrie I could take her but I couldn't pick her up. Well here comes this "stranger" (our mother) who says "I will take her and pick her up, at like 12:30".....Ummm who are you and where did you come from??? So she sure did take Kerrie and she sure did pick her up at 12:30 AM. Heck, she didn't want to pick us up from the skating rink at 11pm on Friday or Saturday night!

Our mom was the best Mom, best Granny and I will miss her more than I can ever say or express.

“ Sharon was a caring person as well as a no nonsense type. Whenever I would see her we would laugh about anything. My heart is very broken and sad. Chris and Nikki have been my friends for several years and I know how they were close to her...especially her granddaughters..I cannot imagine how they are feeling. I am so very sorry.

“ My heart aches for the family of Ms. Sharon Barry. I only spent time with her once but once met I knew I had made a friend for life. So funny. What a witty sense of humor. My love and prayers to her daughter Chris & Nikki, her granddaughters and other family members and friends.

“ We just liked to hang out at the Rec (Joseph Lee Recreation Center). We were cool (so we thought we were;) hence ~ we were. I hear Sharon say, "Chit, there's the old lady!" I said, "Where I don't see anyone?!" Sharon tells me to look behind the green car parked on Drew St. Sure enough, I see her head bobbing up n down looking right at us. Sharon says we have to take her home. She was so tiny in a little house dress. Sharon told Granny she was taking her home, but she refused n wanted to know why?! I told her cuz Buddy Dean was coming on n we were gonna ancestors in the living room. She agreed n told me, "We're in the same bout, Sister!" I thought she was hilarious but Sharon wasn't amused!
