“ I grew up with the Carpenter family. My parents (Kuhn Family) were friends with Steve and Priscilla. I went to school and was friends with Cindy. We all did alot of camping and a ton of picnics together! I have an incredible amount of memories. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Sheila’s bright light, motherly love, generosity, and kind spirit will never be forgotten. I will never be able to express my gratitude for how she was a second mother to Colby, showering him with love since day 1 of his friendship with Christopher in day care all the way through their college summers. Sending love to all family and friends so deeply touched by Sheila’s warmth.
