

Mrs. Sheila Kay McVicker

June 11, 1946 - June 3, 2020

Sheila McVicker, 73, of Canton, Ga., went to be with her heavenly Father on June 3, 2020. She was born in Central City, Ky. on June 11, 1946. She grew up in Manchester, Ky. and graduated from Clay County High school where she met the love of her life, Joseph Vernon McVicker. They were married in 1964 and moved to Atlanta in 1965. Sheila was an active member of Lebanon Baptist Church in Roswell for almost 50 years. She loved working in the kitchen and serving Wednesday night suppers. Her interests include antiques, crafting, and vacationing with family and friends. She was an amazing Christian woman who truly loved others the way Jesus wanted her to. Her beautiful smile and loving hospitality made a lasting impact on those who knew her. Besides her faith, her family was her greatest joy! Sheila was preceded in death by her parents, Everett and Janette Ledford. She is survived by her husband, Joe, daughters, Shawna (Bret Hegi), Stephanie Savage, and her brother Randy Ledford (Evelyn). She was loved dearly by her grandchildren, Shelby (Matt Lattanzi), Hayley Hegi, Anna Savage, PJ Burns, her nephews, Michael Ledford (Shawna), and Wes Ledford. A private graveside service will be held on Monday, June 8, 2020. The family will honor their loving "She-She", with a celebration of life service on a later date. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Gideons International at gideons.org

“ Your smile now lights up Heaven as they gained another angel. I know you're taking care of and hugging those that went on before you...the ones you left too soon will be seeing you shortly - we love you & will miss your beautiful smile & spirit until we see you again.
