“ Guy, Sharon, Jeff and Family,
We are praying for all of you during this sad time. Shelly was a very special lady. I cherish the childhood memories I have of her coming over to my house when you were working at the store. Shelly, Ben and myself had some goodtimes playing and jumping on the trampoline.
I'm sad that Shelly is gone, but I'm glad that she no longer suffers with a disease she fought so bravely.
May God bless you all.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. You have all been in my prayers for the past several months. Shelly and I went to high school together, and reconnected last fall on Facebook. I will continue to lift you all up to the Lord, who will sustain you through this difficult time.

“ When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a TREASURE. What moves through is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day. We may not understand why she left this earth so soon, or why she left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that she is gone, but that she lived. Her life gave you memories too beautiful to forget. May these memories give you strength.

“ Think of her as living,
In the hearts of those she touched.
For nothing loved is ever lost,
And she was loved so much.

You are in our prayers.###imported-begin##Ben & Janet
