“ I have so many childhood and memories as an adult of Shirley. Shirley and James were the best friends and neighbors as you could ever want. I always loved to hear them sing, Shirley had such a sweet and pleasing voice. I was so sad when they moved but I knew it was for the best. My condolences go out to Karen, Linda, Grady and all their family.

“ I have so many memories of your sweet mama. Of your whole family. I will never forget the singing. I can see it still in my minds eye. Al those times in church at Maranatha and visiting other church's where she and your daddy were asked to sing. I remember one time in particular at Gene Dingess's church. Dave and Jackie went too. I remember the songs that were sung. I remember all the times your family came to our house for ice cream and singing. Sweet memories.

I am praying for you all during this difficult time. God bless your family and May he give you comfort.

Shirley was a good friend to me. I will never forget her❤️
