

Sonny De Jesus Rincon

December 21, 1962 - November 12, 2013

Sonny De Jesus Rincon died Tuesday November 12th 2013 in his Cumming, Georgia home at the age of 50. Filled with love and gratitude, he is thought of as a selfless and passionate father, husband, son, brother and friend, always striving to lift others and be a beacon of integrity and devotion to family. Sonny's gifts include helping others to find their way, often inspiring individuals to grow and fulfill their potential and always sharing his perspective to strengthen others. His wife Dina and children Saychelle & Bryan, Imani, Jose, Omari and Cheyenne were always his first priority, and he proved that with his booming laughter, patriarchal charge and forever fervor and dedication to each of their hearts and passions. A rare and unprecedented man, Sonny will be missed on this earth but will forever be in our hearts. A visitation will be held Sunday, November 17, 2013 from 6pm – 8pm at Northside Chapel 12050 Crabapple Road Roswell, Ga 30075. “ *Dear Dina and family,
My deepest sympathy for your loss. Words cannot even begin to express my sorrow for your loss. Sonny was a wonderful person. I'll always remember him fondly, from our days at Saint John Vianney to Marist college. He was the leader, the teacher, a brother and a true friend to our group, Julio, Francisco, Juan, and me. The crew from Castle Hill, Bronx, NY. Sonny was always the life of the party. My best memory of Sonny was the first time he met Dina . He said to me while we watched Dina from outside the lab room at Marist, " Griselda, that's my future wife! God has blessed me and sent her to me! You should never doubt him!". Sure enough, God had listened to Sonny, and made him the happiest man in the world. It was that small moment, that made my faith even stronger. Sonny made me want to believe more in God and in myself. And for that small moment, I am eternally grateful to him. He was the one who kept everyone going when things got rough in college. And I am thankful for all his kind words and advise. Once again, my deepest condolences to you and your family. I am thinking of you during this difficult time.
Dina, please give me a call when you can, I am here for whatever you need. (917)992-0012.*
