“ It is very sad news regarding Stans passing. Stan Beck was one of the first Executives I met when we attended the Harvard Business School Executive MBA Program at the Harvard Business School in Boston Mass. He was a key member of our Can 5 Harvard Team. Stan and I became great friends over the time that we were there. We frequently discussed all of the Harvard Business Cases both on Campus and off Campus at one of our favorite places, the Boathouse. He was a highly intelligent, very kind generous person with a fantastic personality. He always made a person feel comfortable with his wit and humor. As I write this, this, I am looking at our Harvard Business School Graduation photograph, in my office. It is difficult to realize that it was taken over 30 years ago. Stan was a good friend of mine in mind and spirit although it had been a while since we spoke. On behalf of my spouse Eleanor, and I, we would like to convey our sincere condolences to Stans spouse, Cary and family for their loss. May Stan rest in peace and he will definitely live on in our hearts, our minds, and memories.

Sincerely Ernie & Eleanor Boutte' Harvard Business School PMD 64 "92"

“ I met Stan in a business setting and shared many likes, especially sports. I had the opportunity to travel with Stan to a lot of events and we always had fun, even when the outcome of the event wasn't to our liking. Stan was the best, nicest person I've had the opportunity and good fortune to know and I will miss him immeasurably and think of him often. Here is a favorite pic (and there was a good outcome that evening!)
