“ To The Haase Family, I would like to thank you all for sharing Stephen Haase with us over the last 17 years. The man was compassionate to a fault. He was always the cheerleader for the underdog and couldnt resist a sad story without trying to help. He could talk to anyone... It didnt matter... He was a special guy... He will never be forgotten... Rest In Peace... CF##imported-begin##Mr.

“ It seems only days ago in high school that Stephen was always around the hall checking up on his younger brother (my best friend) Kevin and I to make sure we were not in any kind of trouble.. With true love he protected us in very way.. Those memories will never be forgottten...The way we were..May we accept the will of God as painfull as it may be... We pray for all that had a pleasure to truly know Stephen..For his family, friends and all who knew him are with deep sympathy....##imported-begin##Jerry GRANATO##imported-end##

“ Thinking of you all.

It was wonderful getting to see Stephen again on weekends, he always had a hearty greeting for Karen and me. For a minute, it was like we were both back home. We are grateful for those times and will never forget.

In our thoughts,
