“ Simply put, Steve was and is my friend. We hit it off in the very first few minutes we met. He has always been there for me when I needed someone to talk things over with that I couldn't openly share with others. We only had a brief six years but I came to love him as any of my brothers. He constantly worried about how I was doing and would call almost every day. We worked, fished, laughed, talked and ate good food together and truly enjoyed each other's friendship. We spent time in his old boat that I will cherish forever even when the fish weren't biting. I miss him and always will. May You Rest In Peace my Dear Brother. Your spirit will be with me forever, Your Friend - Doc....
