“ Lori and family, I am sorry for your loss. Steve was a terrific boss and a great friend. I will miss him. He always provided me with sound advice; he was a trusted advisor that was loyal with the highest integrity. I have known him since joining Coca-Cola in 1999, and the first time I met him was on a trip to Tennessee to meet with a part of Cracker Barrel team. Of course, he knew our business extremely well and helped our customer understand the value of our relationship. He was good at helping our team and the customer understand the importance of selling and serving Coca-Cola. I also knew him to be an optimist, which you must be if you pull for the Cleveland Browns or Cleveland Indians he would say. He was always positive and encouraged us to "assume positive intent" in all actions and events. He was very well liked and valued. We will keep you in our prayers. Warmest Regards, Bill Wilson###imported-begin##Bill Wilson###imported-end##

“ My family has lost one of its anchors, one of its rocks. Steve was a man of many interests and many talents. Whether it was our shared interest in military history, listening to him play Cat Stevens on his guitar or watching him tour New York City with his beloved wife and children, his intellect, humor and strength defined the man. My mother and father adored him and I am sure he had quite the reception line waiting for him in heaven. Lori, Natalie and Sarah, he will always be with you, in sunshine and in shadow. “ Lori, Sarah and Natalie and family,

Steve and I worked in Supply Chain Management over eight years ago. A couple of my fond memories are; once he brought Sarah and Natalie into work with him; and I asked if they wanted to assist me and they both said yes; and Steve was ok with them working with me. They really worked and did a great job helping me get organized; after that, Steve would always keep me updated on what they were doing. Even though I moved on to other departments, Steve and I remained friends. Whenever or wherever we saw each other, we had to stop and embrace each other and talk about the girls. My second fond memory is when I introduced Mildred to Steve. She went to work in their group as a non-employee worker, but soon after became an "Excellent" full-time employee of TCCC. I believe the working team of Mildred and Steve was a match made in "Heaven". Steve was a brilliant man and a caring and supportive manager. He always took time to share advice and listen to what ever you had to say. Steve was an awesome example of a dedicated and loving father. He truly let it be known that he loved his wife and daughters tremendously. I loved and will truly miss Steve. I pray these words from Isaiah 61:1-3 will provide a little comfort to you. "The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners; to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to provide for those who mourn in Zion— to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit. They will be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, to display his glory." Love, Peace and Blessings to you All! Rev. Letha Lee##imported-begin##Letha ##imported-end##

“ Lori, Natalie and Sarah, I am so sorry for your loss. Steve was an incredible person that positively impacted so many people. He hired me at Coke and I had the pleasure of working with him for nine years. More than that, he was a great friend and mentor who not only taught me about the business, but much more importantly, taught me how to be the best parent and family man to my daughters. Steve will be forever loved and missed and leaves behind an incredible legacy. My prayers are with you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Matt Milcoff##imported-end##

“ Lori, Sarah and Natalie, I offer my deepest sympathy and prayers for your family at this time of great loss. Steve was my manager at Coke for several years. One of his character traits that I most appreciated was his optimistic outlook and ability to find a bright spot in any situation. All of Steve's co-workers at Coke loved him dearly and we were aware of how important and loved his family was to him. May God grant you peace and strength as Steve enjoys his eternal reward. “ Dear Lori, Though we only met briefly, we wanted you to know that you and Steve always had a special place in our hearts. We are deeply saddened at the loss of this very special husband, father and friend. What started out as a business relationship soon turned into a true friendship. We talked shop, and we talked family. Steve was one of the finest gentlemen I've had the privilege of working with. He was a straight shooter, and my "go to guy". He will be missed by all that knew him!
