

Mr. Steven G. Williams

May 30, 1961 - August 13, 2016

Steven George Williams, 55, passed away August 13, 2016 at his home in Roswell, Georgia. He was born on May 30, 1961 in Talladega, Alabama. He was the youngest of two children. He graduated from Georgia Tech in 1983. Although he began work for Chick Fil A in 1977, he joined the company officially in 1983 eventually opening his first store in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

In 1985, Steve married Vicki Smith of Ellenwood, Georgia and they established their home in Colorado eventually moving back to Georgia to open a new Chick Fil A in Roswell. Steve was active in his church, his local Rotary Club, he enjoyed golf at The Country Club of Roswell, and attended his beloved Georgia Tech football, basketball, and baseball games regularly. Mr. Williams is survived by his wife, Vicki, a daughter, Patricia, and a son, Cary Williams. He is further survived by his parents, Herman and Maurice Williams, and a sister, Lisa Whorton, as well as nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

His service will be held Friday, August 19 at 2 PM at Northpoint Community Church on Northpoint Parkway.

His family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations are sent to Action to Cure Kidney Cancer <http://www.ackc.org/donate/> “ Steve may be the only person I have had the pleasure of knowing, that I never heard a single person say anything bad about. He was always reliable and could be counted to help in anyway he could. Despite all he was enduring, I never heard him complain. He was an inspiration to be around. He loved his family and his Yellow Jackets. He will be missed by me as well as anyone who interacted with him.
