She had two older sisters, Helen Clonts of Rome, GA and Patricia Fife of Grass Valley, CA. She also had countless nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends whom she loved dearly. “ *Dear Don, Katie, Phillip and the entire Kilgore Oliver Family, I want you to know how sorry I am for your loss. Sue was a special lady who was loved by many and she will be missed. Even though I hadn't seen her in years, I thought about her every time I pasted the house. I always said, "next time, next time I'm going to stop for a visit"! Next time never came and I feel bad, I didn't stop. But, hopefully Sue is looking down and knows I loved her and cherished our fun times back in the day when Phillip and Zac were at Mt .Park. May all the happy memories help to get y'all through this difficult time. God Bless,
Jackie Wright*

“ Sue was so well loved by so many. The joy of her life was her children. Sue and her husband were blessed with a precious daughter, and wonderful son. Her children gave her wonderful grandchildren who filled her life with love and happiness. She was so much a part of my life - she was my baby sister. I loved her so, and will miss her, but praise God, I will see her again.....

“ Just thinking about my Aunt Susie makes me smile. She surely loved me like I was one of her own. So many of my sweet childhood memories involve her. I loved all of the fun sleep overs filled with bubble baths, chocolate milk, Magic Shell chocolate on our ice cream, and movies. There were always fun treats in her pantry that I didn't have at home. I always loved going to the Mother's morning out with her and playing with the babies. Her love for those little ones just shined. It breaks my heart to think about never seeing her sweet smile and getting a big Susie smooch, but I know I will see her again one day. She was the absolute best aunt and most precious baby sister to my mama! I know she's celebrating in Glory with her parents, my mawmaw & pawpaw. I love you so much Aunt Susie! ❤️

“ Aunt Sue was the cool aunt. When my sister and I were kids we would stay with Aunt Sue and Uncle Donald for a week or two each summer. We always had lots of fun. Aunt Sue would take us to the movies. Sometimes we would see a scary movie we probably shouldn't have watched but we loved it. When I was twelve she gave me her old album collection when she saw how much I loved music. Aunt Sue and I also shared a birthday. As I got older we would call each other on our birthday. It was a bit of a contest to see who could wish the other a “Happy Birthday” first. She seemed to beat me to it more often than not. I called to see how she was doing the day before her birthday last week. When Donald gave her the phone the first thing she said was “Happy Birthday”. I'm going to miss her very much.
