

Summer Marie Bondurant

April 2, 1976 - December 2, 2015

Summer Marie Applewhite Bondurant was welcomed on April 2, 1976, in McComb, MS to Art and Karen. Summer's life started in McComb and there were stopovers in Columbia, SC; Oklahoma; New Orleans; San Antonio; back to McComb; Daphne, AL; Auburn University; and Roswell, GA; while on her way to her new home with her Heavenly Father. She cherished the birth of Caden and Evan John with Justin Bondurant. She was an exemplary mother and guardian, of these, God's precious gifts to her. She will always be remembered for her hard work, wisdom, and her sense of humor and ceaseless wit that anyone who knew her will never forget.

Summer is survived by her parents, Art Applewhite and wife, Debbie, of Wiggins, MS, and Karen Hanak and husband, Kenny, of Fairhope, AL; her brother, Alex Applewhite and wife, Amanda, her niece, Kayleigh, and nephew, Gavin, of Fairhope, AL, as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends.

Summer completed her B.A. degree from Auburn University in three years and became a Certified Compensation Professional and was founder and President of Crabapple Consulting here in Roswell.

We are encouraged by the Christian upbringing of her sons, which is the greatest of her life's accomplishments.

“ I was so saddened to see that Summer had passed. I met her many years ago when I was the Secretary at SAE and that year was my first time being the chairperson for our school's Relay for Life team. Summer asked if she could join us and I said absolutely. She told me she had been diagnosed with breast cancer and was going through treatments. I remember the day of the event and her walking the "Survivor lap" with I believe her son Caden. I took a picture of them later on as we were listening to the tributes, Caden standing in front of her with her arms wrapped protectively around him. I remember what a touching moment that was. My heart breaks for you and your sons. May your special, sweet memories of her bring you some comfort and peace during this difficult time. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Summer's passing. My heart aches for Justin and her boys. I will always remember Summer smiling, like she always was. The memory that stands out the most was from the day that our boys lost their season ending baseball game. She knew we were looking for a house and she insisted that we come look at her neighbor's home that was for sale. She had moved on from the game loss and was on to the next project...finding a new neighbor that had kids that could spend time with her own! May God comfort her sons and entire family during this very hard time. Prayers for you all. Love, Laura Taylor (Carter's Mom)

“ I always enjoyed working with Summer. She was always so helpful and smart. I enjoyed hearing about her sons. I will miss our professional calls about compensation projects, as well as, the times we took to catch up on what was happening in each others' lives. I believe that you are resting in peace, Summer. Everyone will miss you and cherish the memories.

Sincerely,
Tamu Lewis

“ My Dearest Summer,

Thank you for the wonderful gift of our two boys. You've done an amazing job molding them into fine young men that are going to thrive. They miss you, but have already committed to eventually making good out of their loss. I have been in awe of them.

You were an amazing person and loved by all. Although our time together was not as long as either of us intended, I cherished every minute of it. I will always love you. Please know the boys and I will do everything in our power to honor you and make you proud.

Love Always,
