“ I knew "Susie" primarily as the girlfriend of my now departed best friend for decades, David. Those two were both students at Tucker High School during the late 60's; I had been transferred to a school closer to my home. Since David and I were in a dance-band together, I got to know Susan quite well...you couldn't help but enjoy her company, her personality, her warmth and a great smile. I know a certainty; she'll be missed by many for a long time to come. Mark Hamilton

“ One summer a COC co-worker and I tacked a hastily-made sign to the front of Susan's car that read, "Honk! It's my birthday!" Susan drove all the way home shaking her fist and honking her horn back to multiple people who she thought were rude drivers. She told us later that it was only after she parked in her driveway that she saw the sign and screamed. Gosh, I miss her.
