“ My friend, I will miss you. When I was very sick you came to my home and cared for me a few days, and helped me through a bad time. We have spent many good times together, visiting different places and enjoying the holidays. I was visiting you about once a month until I couldn't get in touch with you; I knew then something was wrong. When you couldn't cut your own grass you were feeling your age; you always kept your home and yard neat as a pin without any help from anyone. I'll see you in heaven pretty soon, I don't have long to live. We'll see all our old friends we used to laugh and dance with. I love you!

“ Sue you were always a strong stern woman whom I have a ton of respect for, You were much like a mother figure in my younger years and a true adult mentor for me over the last 10 years. Having known you over 30 plus years, I am very sad you have left us. And though your not with us in body i know your soul and love will always be. I will miss you Sue and I know God will show you what it is like to be a saint. That is how I feel about you. Rest in peace Susie and God will rest your soul,.

“ Sue my friend, we didn't get to spend very much time together. But the little time we did spend together, I count myself lucky just to have known you. You always made me laugh with just your way with words. I am going to miss you so much, but I know we will meet again. Thank you Sue for sharing just a little bit of time with me. I will always love you from the bottom of my heart. Rest in peace
