

Mrs. Suzanne Smith Belcher

July 7, 1926 - September 4, 2021

Suzanne Smith Belcher was born July 7, 1926, in Reidsville, GA, to James Madison Smith, Sr. and Floerl Enecks Smith. She lived 95 wonderful and productive years in Reidsville, Athens, GA, Nashville, GA, and Roswell, GA. Suzanne married Fred Littleton Belcher (1919-2008), her husband of 61 years, and is survived by three children. David Belcher (Irene); Robert Belcher (DeBorah), and Lisa Belcher Flatt (Andy). Her legacy includes 6 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her older sister, Freida Smith Dews at 100 years old, as well as several nieces and nephews. For over 60 years Suzanne was an active member of the Nashville United Methodist Church, serving in many ways through the years. She also was the middle and high school librarian for many years in the Berrien County, GA, school system, and was greatly loved by her library aides. Suzanne had a life-long love for learning and a zest for living which led to many interests including playing the piano, square dancing, camping, wood-working, painting, and reading. Most of all she loved God and her family and was very loved in return. Suzanne leaves behind a treasure of beautiful memories and will be deeply and forever missed by her friends and family.

Suzanne died on September 4, 2021, in Roswell, GA, and will be buried beside her loving husband Fred in Westview Cemetery, Nashville, GA. A celebration of life service will be held Saturday September 18 at 2:00 PM, in the courtyard at Northbrook UMC, 11225 Crabapple Road, Roswell, Georgia

“ I just learned of Suzanne's passing. I met Fred and Suzanne on a trip to Scotland 25 years ago. We had a quick and wonderful friendship. I too will soon enough make the trip that she and Fred have taken. They were wonderful caring people and the world sure needs more like them. My condolences to the family and friends.
