

Suzanne McClure

June 6, 1965 - February 17, 2012

Margaret Suzanne Green McClure, 46, beloved wife, daughter, sister and aunt, passed away February 17, 2012 due to complications from cholangiocarcinoma, a cancer of the bile ducts. Suzanne was born in Charleston, South Carolina and grew up in Pickens, South Carolina. She was a 1983 graduate of Pickens High School and attended Greenville Technical College. Suzanne had lived in the Atlanta area for 26 years, was employed at Gerber Agri International in Marietta for 16 years and was living in Canton, Georgia at the time of her passing. She loved vacationing in Ormond Beach, Florida, spending time outdoors and enjoying the companionship of her husband and their cats and celebrating special occasions with her family. Suzanne is survived by her beloved husband Eddie; mother, Peggy Green; sister, Terri Green Keasler and her husband, Scott; brother, Jeff Green and his wife, Roxanne; nephews, John Keasler and Daniel Green. She was predeceased by her father, Charles Green. Friends and family are invited to attend a memorial service of Suzanne's life at 3:00 PM on Saturday March 24, 2012 at Northside Chapel, 12050 Crabapple Rd, Roswell, Georgia, 30075. The family will receive friends from 1:00 PM until 2:45 PM, prior to the service, at the church. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to www.cholangiocarcinoma.org. Online condolences may be expressed at northsidechapel.com or in person at Northside Chapel, which is assisting the family.

“ My prayers are with your family. Suzanne was very courageous in her fight. She always had a smile on her face and had such a pleasant countenance. She was beautiful inside and out and I sure loved her. May sweet memories replace tears with smiles. God bless you all.##imported-begin##Connie Miller##imported-end##
