

Mrs. Sybil Faye Stepp

October 11, 1929 - March 16, 2018

Sybil Barnett Stepp, age 88, died on March 16, 2018.

She was a native of Tupelo, Mississippi and lived there for 75 years. Sybil was predeceased by her loving husband of 50 years, Erskin Lee Stepp.

A consummate mother and homemaker, Sybil was an excellent cook and enjoyed preparing meals for her family and friends. She and Erskin enjoyed working in a huge vegetable garden every year.

She was an active member of Bissell Baptist Church, where she served one time as the Women's Missionary Union (WMU) Director. She was a member of the Adults No. 2 Sunday School Class.

After her husband died, Susan and Steve Moxley helped Sybil until 2005, when she moved to Roswell, Georgia to live with Jo Anne Young (daughter) and Thomas W. Young (son-in-law) for 13 years. She was a member of the North River Baptist Church and looked forward to attending her Sunday School class each week. In 2016, Sybil moved into the A. G. Rhodes Health and Rehab in Marietta. The family gives Bridgett Yeagley and the staff on the 2nd floor that cared for Sybil their greatest gratitude.

In addition to her daughter and son-in-law, survivors include grand-daughters and their husbands: Krista Kay Downey and Matthew Downey (Acworth, GA), Melissa Leigh and Kasey Mears (Marietta, GA), April Nicole and Brian Schoen (Holly Springs, GA); and great grand-children Chris Black, Jr. (Acworth), Alexis Renee Downey (Acworth), Jordan Matthew Downey (Acworth), Hayla Grace Coleman (Marietta), Wesley Thomas Mears (Marietta), Katherine Anne
